

entrance way or drive way in Anne Arundel County, without first having secured the permission or consent of the owner, lessee, or custodian of such premises, and any other persons riding in or transported by such vehicle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than One Dollar nor more than Twenty-five Dollars. Provided, however, that all such property shall be conspicuously posted by signs containing the following words: "Private Property. Keep Off" or "Private Road. Keep Out", but such signs or posting shall not be required on any property which is fenced off from the road or highway upon which it bounds, or in case of any residential property having a frontage of 250 feet or less on any road, street, or highway.

506-C. Any person who shall park any automobile or other vehicle on or upon any private road, street or lane in Anne Arundel County, contrary to the notice of the owner, lessee or custodian of any such road, street, or lane, and any passenger riding in or transported by such vehicle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than One Dollar nor more than Twenty-five Dollars. Every such road, street, or lane shall be conspicuously posted with a sign or signs containing the words "Private Road—No Parking".

506-D. Any owner, lessee, or custodian of any lot, field, property, road, street, lane, entrance way, or drive way in Anne Arundel County, shall be permitted to remove or have removed from any such property any automobile or other vehicle parked thereon contrary to the posted notice of the owner, lessee, or custodian of such premises, and such removal shall be at the risk, cost and expense of the owner of such vehicle. Such vehicle may be removed to any other place and impounded for and be subject to a lien for the costs of removal, storage, notice, and any other costs and damages sustained by the owner of said premises; and if after 10 days the said costs have not been paid, the owner of the premises upon which said vehicle was parked, shall give notice by registered mail to the owner of said vehicle, if by reasonable diligence the name and address of the owner of said vehicle can be ascertained, and if the name and address of the owner of said vehicle cannot be ascertained by reasonable diligence, then notice shall be given by publication of one insertion of a notice of sale of said vehicle in a newspaper of general circulation throughout Anne Arundel County, and upon 10 days notice to the Police Department of the time and place of such sale, the said vehicle shall be sold