

the officer taking the same shall post in a conspicuous place on said premises or at or near the location of the place or thing searched a copy of his warrant, and take possession of such liquor and means used for the sale of the same, and hold them subject to the order of the court or Justice of the Peace, and make return of his doing thereto. Whereupon it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace or court to fix a time for the hearing and determine the purpose for which such liquor is kept, and issue a notice thereof to the officer, who shall post a copy thereof on the premises or at or near the location of the place or thing searched where the liquors were found. If no one appears at the time fixed for said hearing, nor within thirty days thereafter to claim such liquor and means used for the sale of the same, the Justice of the Peace or Court shall order the same destroyed or disposed of.

114. No warrant shall be issued to search any residence accepted as such, unless it or some part of it is used as a store or shop, hotel, restaurant or boarding house, or unless such residence is a place of public resort, or unless such residence is utilized as a place for keeping, storing, hiding, secreting or furnishing or handling any intoxicating liquor, in any quantity, intended or for the purpose of sale or disposition otherwise contrary to this sub-title or contrary to law; provided, nevertheless, if the Justice of the Peace shall, after an examination of the party making the oath or after taking such other proof as may be produced, deem it proper to issue such warrant, then the said Justice of the Peace, may, in his discretion, issue the warrant as hereinbefore provided, for the searching of such a residence.

115. The person making affidavit for the warrant to search any place or thing where intoxicating liquor is believed to be disposed of, kept, stored, deposited, hidden, secreted, handled or furnished contrary to this sub-title, may personally or by agent accompany the officer who serves the warrant and point out and enter the place or thing with such officer and give information and assistance to such officer in searching such place, house or thing for such intoxicating liquor.

116. Liquor seized as hereinbefore provided, and the means used for the sale of the same, shall not be taken from the custody of the officer by a writ of replevin or other process while the proceedings herein provided are pending; and final judgment of conviction in such proceedings shall be in all cases a bar to all suits for the recovery of any
