

liquor seized or the value of the same, or for damages alleged to arise by reason of the seizing and detention thereof.

117. When any prosecution is commenced before the Justice of the Peace or court for a violation of this sub-title, and the liquor seized under this section is to be used as evidence in such trial, the hearing must take place in not more than thirty days if such court is then in session, and if it be not in session, within thirty days from the date when it is next in session. If at the time appointed for trial the returns have not been properly made, or for other sufficient cause, the trial may be postponed to a further date not more than fifteen days beyond said thirty days.

118. The word "Liquor", when used in this sub-title, unless the same be inconsistent with the context, shall be construed to include the vessels containing the same; the phrase "Means used for the sale of the same", shall include all furniture, implements, equipment, instrumentalities, or paraphernalia of a barroom or drinking saloon or any part of same, and any United States Internal Revenue tax receipts effective for the period of time covering the alleged offense, and to include also any conveyance or vehicle; the word "place" shall be construed to include any edifice, apartment, room, tent, boat, wagon, conveyance, motor vehicle, aeroplane, or any open air location.

119. Any residence or any part thereof which is a place of public resort, or is used as a store or shop, or is utilized as a place for keeping, depositing, storing, hiding, secreting, handling, exchanging, distributing, furnishing or delivering any intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever intended for sale or disposition otherwise contrary to this sub-title or contrary to law, shall not be accepted or held as a private residence for the purposes of this sub-title.

120. The giving away, furnishing, delivering, handling, distributing or exchanging of any intoxicating liquor by any storekeeper, or at any place of business, or the taking or soliciting of orders, or the making of agreements by any person at or within the said County of Worcester for the sale or delivery or future giving away of any intoxicating liquors, or any other shift or device to evade any provision of this sub-title, shall be held to be an unlawful selling.

121. All prosecutions for violations of this sub-title which are hereby declared to be misdemeanors, may be either upon presentment or indictment or by trial before
