

the Justice of the Peace of Worcester County, who shall have jurisdiction, original and concurrent, with the Circuit Court for the said County, and the said Justice of the Peace shall have power to issue all process, and to do all acts which may be necessary to the exercise of his said jurisdiction, and may try and determine all cases whereof he may have jurisdiction, and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein in the same manner and to the same extent as the Circuit Court for the said County could do in such cases if such cases were tried before said Court without the intervention of a jury; provided, however, that if any person, when brought before the Justice of the Peace shall, before trial for the alleged offense pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for said county shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a trial by jury on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the Circuit Court of the said county if it be in session, or at its next session if it be not in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance with the names, and residences of witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith, to the Clerk of said Court, and the Justice of the Peace shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial. If after trial before the Justice of the Peace, either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of such Justice of the Peace, there shall be a right of appeal within ten days to the Circuit Court for said County.

122. The County Commissioners of Worcester County are hereby authorized to use any part of the fines collected for the violation of this sub-title for hiring detectives or secret service officers (who shall be deputized proper officers) or for paying county constables to secure the enforcement of this sub-title. And when there are no funds available from fines collected for the violation of this sub-title, such County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appropriate not more than five hundred dollars annually from the general revenue fund for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this sub-title.

123. The intention of this sub-title is effectually to prevent and suppress the evasions and violations of the liquor laws in Worcester County and for that purpose all the provisions of this sub-title shall be liberally construed and interpreted; provided, however, that nothing contained in this sub-title shall apply to private residences, private clubs or shipments by means of common carriers operating under
