

Bonds of 1942", and they shall all be dated January 1, 1942. Said bonds may be issued in two or more series from time to time as funds are needed to carry out said refunding operations by meeting the maturities above described, or if it shall appear to be more feasible and economical by reason of market conditions and in order to reduce the cost of printing and advertising, etc., the Mayor and Council of Crisfield may issue the entire amount of bonds hereby authorized at one time as of their date of issue. All of said bonds shall be in denominations of One thousand dollars ($1,000) each, and they shall be numbered consecutively from No. One (1) to No. Forty-one (41), irrespective of the actual time of issue and sale. If said bonds are issued and sold in series from time to time then each series shall bear a different series letter, beginning with the letter "A", but as above provided, all of said bonds shall be dated January 1, 1942, irrespective of their actual date of sale, and all of said bonds shall mature and become payable twenty (20) years from date of issue on January 1, 1962. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum (5%) per annum which may be fixed in advance of sale by the Mayor and Council of Crisfield or may be determined at the time of sale in the manner hereinafter prescribed. Said interest shall be payable semi-annually, for which proper interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds. All of said bonds shall be suitably lithographed, printed or engraved; shall be signed by the Mayor of Crisfield, and the corporate seal of said municipality shall be affixed to each of said bonds, attested by the City Clerk of Crisfield. The coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of said Mayor, printed, lithographed or engraved thereon. Each of said bonds shall contain an appropriate recital on its face to the effect that they are issued upon the full faith and credit of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield, and each of said bonds shall also contain on its face a distinct reference to this Act by quotation of the title hereof. Said bonds may be issued subject to registration as to principal only, with the City Clerk of Crisfield acting as Registrar, and, in the discretion of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield, they may also be issued subject to a reservation of the right of prior redemption by the Mayor and Council of Crisfield upon such terms and conditions and under such circumstances as may be recited on the face of said bonds and as may be set forth in the ordinance of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield hereinafter provided for. In all other particulars, not herein otherwise limited, the Mayor and Council of Crisfield shall have full discretion and power to determine all details con-
