

ments contained therein are true and are of opinion that the applicant is a suitable person to whom a license may be issued.

(C) No person shall be permitted to support or endorse more than one application for a license.

(D) Every person receiving a license under the sub-title shall frame the same under glass and place conspicuously in the place of business where it may at all times be easily read.

212A. In each and every month, the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County shall publish by a single insertion in a newspaper of general circulation in Howard County, a notice of all Class A "Beer Licenses" and Class B "Liquor and Wine Licenses" issued under the provisions of this sub-title during the month preceding, and a sum sufficient to pay the proportionate cost of such notice shall be paid to the Clerk by each person to whom a license is issued. The published notice shall group the licenses according to districts and shall specify the name of the person to whom the license is issued, the kind of license and location of the place of business. The notice shall also contain a clause to the effect that five (5) or more reputable citizens who are real estate owners, voters and residents in the district where the place of business is located, may over their own signatures file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County protests against any license granted, and the continued operation of the particular place of business. The Board of County Commissioners may, in its discretion, appoint from time to time and for such period or periods as it may deem proper, an investigator or investigators, at a salary or salaries not to exceed in the aggregate Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) a year, whose duty it shall be to make investigations of all protests and complaints of violations of this sub-title, inspect the premises of any licensee at any time that any person is on the licensed premises, and make complaints in writing to the Board of County Commissioners of violations of this sub-title, and written complaints of violations may also be filed with said Board by the Sheriff for Howard County.

212B. When any protest made pursuant to the notice provided for in the foregoing section shall be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, there shall be endorsed thereon the time of filing, and the same shall be immediately transmitted to the Board of County Commissioners of Howard County. The Board of County Commissioners shall hear and determine all such protests and any complaints of violations by licensees submitted by any person authorized to make complaints by said Section 212A with power to summon and administer oaths to witnesses. Upon receipt of any such protest
