

the case of the conviction of a licensee, in addition to such penalties, his license shall be suspended or revoked by the Board of County Commissioners, upon the same terms and conditions as provided by Section 222 of this sub-title in the case of convictions for the violation of any of the other provisions of this sub-title.

216. No licensee or employee of any licensee shall sell or furnish any alcoholic beverage at any time to a minor under twenty-one years of age, either for his own use or for the use of any other person, or to any person who, at the time of such sale or delivery, is visibly under the influence of any alcoholic beverage, but beer or wine may be sold or furnished to a minor with the consent of and when accompanied by, one of the parents or the guardian of such minor.

217. (A) Licenses issued under this sub-title shall not be regarded as property or as conferring any property right, and all such licenses shall be subject to suspension, restriction or revocation as in this Act provided.

(B) No licensee shall be entitled to a refund of an unearned portion of the fee paid for a license upon surrender thereof except in the event of receivership or bankruptcy of the business, or in the event of the death of the licensee, and in such cases refund shall be made for the benefit of the creditors or estate of any such licensee. Any refunds authorized by this sub-title shall be made by the Board of County Commissioners upon certificate of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County.

(C) On the death of any licensee, his license shall expire but upon application to the Clerk of the Circuit Court and the payment of One Dollar ($1.00) made by the executor or administrator of the deceased licensee, a certificate may be granted authorizing the continuation of the business in the name of such executor or administrator for the benefit of decedent's estate until the date of expiration of such license, subject to all provisions of this sub-title applicable to the original licensee. If the business of the deceased licensee be not continued, his executor or administrator may apply to the Clerk of the Circuit Court and obtain a refund from the date of application for the same to the date of expiration of such license.

(D) Whenever any license issued under this sub-title has been lost or destroyed, the Clerk of the Circuit Court shall have power, upon application under oath containing a statement of facts regarding the loss or destruction of the license, to issue, upon payment to the Clerk of a fee of One Dollar ($1.00), another license to be marked "duplicate" in addition to all information appearing on the original license.
