

boilers, spigots, coil, lead, solder, copper, alloys of metals or manufactures of metals, tin plate, or any other like material whatever, or to barter, purchase, exchange, buy, receive or accept any other second-hand goods, wares, or merchandise of any kind or nature whatever, without providing and keeping books, and making therein at the time of such purchase, exchange, receiving or accepting the entries hereinafter provided.

533D. Every owner of such junk shops and second-hand stores shall provide and constantly keep a book, in which shall be fairly written down in the English language, at the time of every purchase of any such material, a description of all articles so purchased, the name and residence of the person from whom such purchase was made, and the day and the hour of such purchase, and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of any and every member of the police and detective forces of any municipality in said County and to the sheriff and any constable. Such book or books must be preserved for a period of at least three years after the date of the last purchase or transaction recorded in such book.

533E. Any person who shall violate, or neglect, fail or refuse to comply with any or all of the provisions of the two preceding sections, shall for every offense, upon conviction before any court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not less than Five nor more than One Hundred Dollars, and in default of payment thereof be imprisoned in jail for a period not exceeding ninety days.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved May 26, 1941.

CHAPTER 237.

(House Bill 323)

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 16 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Chancery", sub-title "Divorce", said new section to be known as Seciton 41A and to follow immediately after Section 41 of said Article, providing for the granting of divorces in cases where one spouse is permanently and incurably insane, prescribing the procedure and extending the jurisdiction of Courts of Equity to the custody of children and matters of alimony, maintenance and support in such cases.

(Vetoed.)