

8. The name of the proposed organization, which shall be styled "The.....Public Drainage Association."

They shall file with their report maps and profiles, likewise in triplicate, which shall show:

1. The location of the proposed ditches or drains or other improvements by courses and distances.
 2. A general delineation of the boundary of the area affected, with the general location in the county indicated.
 3. A general delineation of the boundaries of the lands within the area owned by each individual assessed, with an estimate of the acreage which each contains.
 4. The dimensions and profiles of the proposed ditches or drains or other improvements.
48. The county commissioners shall at their first meeting, after receiving such report from the drainage viewers, examine it, and if it is found not to be in due form and in accordance with the law it shall be referred back to the drainage viewers to be corrected and returned to the county commissioners at a subsequent meeting. If the report is found to be in due form and in accordance with the law the county commissioners shall appoint a day for a public hearing upon the report and petition and shall give not less than thirty days' previous notice of the time and place of the hearing, by notice published in a newspaper or newspapers published in the county or counties in which the lands affected are located, and by a written or printed notice mailed to each person named in the report. During this time a copy of the report shall be on file in the office of the Clerk of the County Commissioners, and shall be open to the inspection of any landowner or other person interested, and the notices shall so state.
49. The Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners shall maintain a drainage file, in which shall be kept such petitions, motions, orders, reports, and other exhibits necessary for a complete and continuous record of the establishment of every Public Drainage Association organization within the county.
50. If any owner of land or other property affected by any proceedings hereinbefore authorized lives out of the State, a written notice of thirty days served on the tenant or agent of such owner of the proceedings of the county commissioners shall be as good and sufficient as if said owner resided in the State.
