

received it or as it may have been amended. Upon confirmation of the report they shall declare established an organization, to be known as the.....Public Drainage Association, composed of the owners of all the lands assessed for the cost of the proposed drainage improvements, and empowered to carry out the plan of improvement as designated in the report of the drainage viewers.

56. In case any report of the Board of Drainage Viewers shall have been rejected by the Board of County Commissioners, then the expenses properly incurred in the making of the survey and the report and in the publication of notices shall be paid by the Board of County Commissioners, who may then levy a tax in equal amounts upon the property of the land-owners who signed the petition, the proceeds of such tax to be used to reimburse the Board of County Commissioners for the said payment of the said expenses.

57. The Board of Drainage Viewers shall, within one month after the confirmation of their report, call together the landowners assessed for the cost of the proposed improvements, hereinafter designated as the taxables, for the purpose of electing a board of three managers.

They shall give ten days' previous notice of the meeting by notices posted in four of the most public places in the vicinity of the drainage project, stating the time, place and object of the meeting.

At such meeting or any other meeting thereafter, each of the taxables shall be entitled to the following votes according to their respective assessments shown in the report of the Board of Viewers as confirmed by the county commissioners: For any assessment of fifteen dollars or less, one vote; for any assessment or more than fifteen dollars and not more than thirty-five dollars, two votes; for any assessment of more than thirty-five dollars and not more than sixty dollars, 3 votes; for any assessment of more than sixty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, 4 votes; for any assessment of more than one hundred dollars, one additional vote for each fifty dollars or fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred dollars; and any taxable so entitled may vote by proxy, authorized by writing, under his hand.

Taxables who shall be entitled to cast a majority of all the votes herein provided for shall be a quorum for the purposes aforesaid; but if such taxables constituting a quorum refuse or fail to meet upon the notice being given as aforesaid, then the county commissioners, upon proof that
