

the required notice has been given, shall be authorized and are directed to appoint such managers.

58. The Board of Managers so elected or appointed under Section 57 shall proceed to determine, by the drawing of lots, which of their number shall serve until the date of the first regular annual meeting, as hereinafter provided in this sub-title, and for two years thereafter, which one shall serve until the date of the first regular annual meeting and for one year thereafter, and which one shall serve until the date of the first regular annual meeting.

59. The Board of Managers so elected or appointed having determined the length of term of the several members, shall proceed at once to organize by electing from among their number a chairman and a secretary.

60. The Board of County Commissioners shall deliver to the Board of Managers one copy of the report and map of the drainage viewers as confirmed by the Board of County Commissioners. They shall retain one copy of the said report and map in their official records and shall deliver the third copy of the report and map to the State Drainage Engineer.

61. The Board of Managers so elected or appointed, and their successors, so annually thereafter call a meeting of the taxables on the second Saturday in January. They shall give ten days' previous notice of the meeting by notices posted in four of the most public places in the vicinity of the drainage project, stating the time, place and object of the meeting. They may call a special meeting of the taxables at any time, for which notice shall be given as aforesaid, and in addition a written or printed notice shall be mailed to each of the taxables.

62. At such annual meetings the taxables shall elect a successor to that manager whose term expires as of that date and to any other or others whose death or resignation may have occurred since the last regular meeting. They shall receive the annual report of the Board of Managers, and shall transact such other business as may properly come before them.

63. Should the managers for the time being fail to call an annual meeting of the taxables as aforesaid, or, such meeting have been called, should a quorum fail to be present, then in either case the Board of County Commissioners, upon proof being given, is authorized and
