

309. No earth pits or cesspools or other means for the disposal of human sewage other than the water-tight boxes or other water-tight receptacles specified in the preceding section shall be constructed in any part of Baltimore County within three hundred yards of the source of any public or private water supply, excepting upon a permit issued by the county or district health officer; provided, that any persons who shall have a private water supply upon his own property and who shall have maintained such water supply previous to the construction of any cesspool, or other receptacle or contrivance, or earth pit which he may allege to have polluted his water supply, may make application to the County Health Officer for an investigation to determine if his water supply is polluted or may become polluted by the said earth pit, cesspool, or other receptacle or contrivance. If upon such investigation such private water supply shall be found to be polluted or likely to become polluted by said cesspool, earth pit, or other receptacle or contrivance, the County Health Officer shall order the use of such cesspool, earth pit, or other receptacle or contrivance discontinued. Any person refusing or neglecting to obey such order of the County Health Officer shall be liable to the penalty provided by Section 308 for refusing to comply with rules and regulations of the County Commissioners as aforesaid.

312. The Board of Health of Baltimore County is hereby authorized and empowered to make regulations governing the location and conduct of pig pens and hog pens in the county. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep a hog pen or pig pen within fifty feet of any well, spring, pond, lake, river or stream, the water of which may be used for drinking or cooking purposes, or in violation of the aforesaid regulations in Baltimore County, under a penalty of not less than Ten Dollars, and the said County Health Officer shall immediately remove the same.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 313 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County", sub-title "Health and Sanitation", be and the same is hereby repealed and a new section enacted in lieu thereof to be known as Section 313 and to read as follows:

313. No person shall throw, draw out or deposit any dead carcass or parts thereof, dead fish, offal of any kind, garbage or any excrement or filth from vaults or privies into, on or upon any highway, by-way or alley, lot or tract of land in Baltimore County except upon a permit issued by the County Health Officer, nor shall any person permit the same to be
