

arrangements with other States to waive residence requirements, case for case, when, in their judgment, the same is deemed necessary, so long as the waiver does not invalidate Federal matching;

(d) Has not sufficient income or other available resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health;

(e) Has no child or other person responsible under the laws of this State for his or her support and able to support him or her; provided that if such child or other person is partially able to support the applicant, such partial support shall be taken into consideration in fixing the amount of any assistance that may be granted;

(f) Is not an inmate of any public institution at the time of receiving assistance. An inmate of such an institution may, however, make application for such assistance, but the assistance, if granted, shall not begin until he ceases to be an inmate;

(g) Has not made an assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for assistance under this Article at any time within three years immediately prior to the filing of application for assistance or the receipt of assistance pursuant to the provisions of this Article.

4. (Amount of Assistance.) The amount of assistance which any recipient shall receive shall be determined by the County Department with due regard to the resources and necessary expenditures of the individual and the conditions existing in each case, and in accordance with the rules and regulations made by the State Department, and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support of the recipient to provide such person with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health; but in no case shall the old age assistance granted exceed thirty dollars ($30.00) per month, except that in special cases requiring medical or nursing care, the assistance granted shall not exceed forty dollars ($40.00) per month.

7. (Application for Assistance.) Application for assistance under this Article shall be made to the County Department of the county in which the applicant resides. The application shall be made in the form and manner prescribed by the State Department.

17. (Recovery from the Estate.) On the death of any recipient, the total amount of assistance paid under this Article shall be allowed as a claim against the estate. One-half of the net amount realized from all such claims shall be promptly
