

following oath or affirmation: "I....., make oath (or affirmation) on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of Commissioner of Bel Air, to the best of my ability, so help me God"; which shall be in the test book for other offices in the custody of the said Clerk, and signed by said Commissioners, which said oaths and signing shall be deemed their qualifications.

99A. The Commissioners shall annually appoint a Clerk, Treasurer, a Superintendent of Public Works and a Chief Police Officer, provided that the present Treasurer shall hold office until the first day of January, 1943.

99B. The Clerk shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Commissioners and shall preserve the same in a good and substantial manner and such records shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein. He shall also be custodian of the records of the town.

99C. The Treasurer shall receive and collect all general and special taxes and all other monies whatsoever due the town and shall disburse the same as directed and authorized by the Commissioners; he shall submit a detailed monthly and annual report of all monies received and disbursed.

99D. The Superintendent of Public Works, under the direction of the Commissioners, shall have direct charge of all public works of the town; he shall be custodian of the general property of the town, including the streets, roads, alleys, sewerage system and the sewerage disposal plant, buildings, offices, machinery, tools, motor equipment, etc., and shall be responsible for its care, use and upkeep; he shall have charge and direction of the working forces of the town and shall oversee any work performed under contract; he shall attend the meetings of the Commissioners and shall advise them as to the condition of the public works as above defined; he shall incur no expenditure of public funds except as authorized by the Commissioners.

99E. The Chief Police Officer shall act under the immediate direction of the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners or the Commissioner appointed by the Board to supervise this work, and shall perform such duties as they may direct; he shall preserve the peace; prevent disorderly or irregular meetings and shall enforce all ordinances of the town; he shall serve such notices and process required by this Charter or by any ordinance passed by virtue thereof, as directed.