

($100.00) of taxable property in said Town; to which shall be added a tax in an amount sufficient for the retirement of the bonds issued for the purpose of instaling the sewerage system as they become due, together with the interest on the remaining bonds as it becomes due, said tax to be fixed, levied and collected in the same manner and on the same tax bills as the taxes for general purposes are now or may be hereafter levied and collected in said Town.

103. The Treasurer shall, as soon as the annual levy is made, give notice thereof by advertisement in one or more newspapers published in the Town of Bel Air, stating the discounts allowed and the date from which taxes bear interest and warning taxpayers of their liability to be published as delinquents and to have their property sold if taxes are not paid as required by law; he shall also immediately make out the bill of each taxpayer upon which a similar notice shall be printed, and he may forward said bill to the taxpayer if he knows the said taxpayer's address.

104. On the first day of each month the Treasurer shall, if required by the Commissioners, make a report to them of the receipts and disbursements of his office for the preceding month showing the source of such receipts and the respective accounts for which such disbursements were made and the amount of balance on deposit to his credit in bank. On the first day of January of each year he shall make a similar report covering receipts and disbursements for the preceding year and also a statement of all taxes placed in his hands for collection and all discounts and erroneous and insolvent tax bills for which he shall claim credit, and he shall be responsible to the Commissioners of the Town of Bel Air for any sum representing the difference between the amount due in taxes, as shown by the levy placed in his hands for collection, plus any additional levy, plus taxes discovered which were not in the levy, plus interest thereon; less the authorized legal disbursements, discounts and insolvencies allowed by the Commissioners. The Treasurer, when he makes his said annual report, shall submit to the Commissioners all erroneous and insolvent tax bills for which he shall claim a credit and in no case shall said Commissioners allow a credit for erroneous or insolvent tax bills unless satisfactory proof be produced that said bills cannot be collected.

105. The said Treasurer is required to enforce payment of taxes by sale, as herein provided, of all property upon which taxes are in arrears, as soon as he is empowered so to do, and upon his retirement from office he is directed and required to deliver to his successor all office books and papers, and all
