

the purpose of installing, maintaining and operating the sewerage system and sewage disposal plant provided for under this Charter, and they may construct in such street, road or alley or public highway a sewer or any appurtenance thereof, but first must obtain a permit without charge from the proper authorities controlling such street, road or alley or public highway, provided that whenever any State, County or Municipal highway is to be disturbed that said highway shall be repaired and left by the Commissioners, in the same, or a not inferior, condition to that existing before being torn up, and that all costs incident thereto shall be borne by the Commissioners.

120. Upon application to the Commissioners any property owner, whose property does not abut on a sewer, may have his property connected with the system at his own expense, except that the Commissioners shall install and pay for the portion referred to in Section 112; and thereafter his property shall be assessed as though abutting on the sewer, provided, however, that said Commissioners shall have the right at any and all times to treat such property in the same manner as they would private property, under Section 117.

121. Any individual, firm or corporation having buildings, conduits, pipes, tracks, or other physical construction in, over or under the public roads, streets or alleys of the area served by the sewerage system and sewage disposal plant that block or impede the progress of the Commissioners in constructing their sewerage system and sewage disposal plant shall, upon reasonable notice from said Commissioners, promptly shift, adjust, move or remove same at their own cost and expense, so as to fully meet the exigencies of the occasion.

122. The Commissioners and any employee or agent of said Commissioners shall have the right of entry at all reasonable hours, upon any private premises and into any building within their jurisdiction, while in the performance of their official duties; and any restraint or hindrance offered to such entry, by an owner or tenant or agent of said owner or tenant shall be a misdemeanor, punishable under Section 123.

123. Every act or omission designated a misdemeanor in this Charter shall be prosecuted before a Justice of the Peace or by indictment and upon conviction, the offender shall be subject to a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or thirty (30) days in the county jail, or both, in the discretion of the Court or Justice. Where such act or omission is of a continuing nature and is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this Charter or any rule or regulation formulated
