

employer under certain conditions, providing penalties for the violation thereof, and providing that any corporation, association, or organization responsible for such unlawful occupation shall be financially liable for damage caused thereby.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments", sub-title "Boundaries", said new section to be known as Section 24A, to follow immediately after Section 24 of said Article, and to read as follows:

24A. It shall be unlawful for any employee or former employee or group or groups thereof to remain upon land, premises or property or in buildings under the legal control of his or their employer after a notice to leave shall have been given by said employer or his duly authorized agent when the purpose of effect of such refusal to leave is to deprive such employer of the substantial possession, control or use of such land, premises, property or building, provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to include within its provisions such refusal to leave under a bona fide claim of right or ownership of said land, property, premises, or building.

Any corporation, association, or organization responsible for such illegal occupation of private property shall be financially liable for whatever loss of revenue or loss from damage inflicted that the owners of said property have suffered as a result of said occupation.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) and not more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved May 29, 1941.
