

of 1935, said new section to be known as Section 7A and to read as follows:

7A. The said Upper Potomac River Commission and the State Department of Forestry are hereby authorized to enter into an agreement for the conveyance or lease of all or such part of the lands which said Commission has acquired or may hereafter acquire above the 1483.5 contour level by said Commission to the State Department of Forestry. The said agreement may provide that the property so conveyed or leased shall be planted in trees by the State Department of Forestry where necessary and that said lands shall be maintained in a forest cover for the protection of the water shed. The said agreement shall provide, however, that the Commission shall have in perpetuity, through its agents and servants, the right of ingress and egress over and upon said lands for the purpose of inspection and maintenance of the aforesaid Savage River Dam.

The said Upper Potomac River Commission and the said State Department of Forestry shall have the power, by agreement, to prescribe the rights, duties, obligations, privileges and powers of each of said contracting parties as to the lands so conveyed or leased, and the right of access to or over the lands not conveyed or leased belonging to or under the control of either of said contracting parties.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 28, 1941.

---

CHAPTER 343.

(Senate Bill 233)

AN ACT to repeal Sections 28 to 38, inclusive, of Article 12 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Garrett County", sub-title "Bloomington".