

seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

ORDINARY DISABILITY RETIREMENT BENEFIT.

(3) Upon the application of a member in service or of his department head, any member who has had ten or more years of creditable service may be retired by the Board of Trustees, not less than thirty and not more than ninety days next following the date of filing such application, on an ordinary disability retirement allowance, provided that the Medical Board, after a medical examination of such member, shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that such member should be retired.

ALLOWANCE ON ORDINARY DISABILITY RETIREMENT.

(4) Upon retirement for ordinary disability a member shall receive a service retirement allowance if he has attained the age of 65, otherwise he shall receive an ordinary disability retirement which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) A pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to ninety per centum of one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service, if such retirement allowance exceeds one-quarter of his average final compensation; otherwise a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-quarter of his average final compensation, provided, however, that no such allowance shall exceed ninety per centum of one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years which would be creditable to him were his service to continue until the attainment of age 65.

ACCIDENTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.

(5) Upon the application of a member in service, or of the head of his department, any member who has been totally and permanently incapacitated for duty as the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring while in the actual performance of duty at some definite time and place, without wilful negligence on his part, shall be retired by the Board of Trustees, provided that the medical board shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the
