

(3) Old-age benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act, as amended, or similar payments under any Act of Congress; provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this Act, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration.

(f) For any week with respect to which or a part of which he has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment compensation law of another State or of the United States; provided, that if the appropriate agency of such other State or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this disqualification shall not apply.

CLAIMS FOR BENEFITS.

6. (a) Posting of Information. Each employer shall post and maintain in places readily accessible to individuals in his employ printed statements concerning benefit rights, claims for benefits and such other matters relating to the administration of this Act as the Board may by regulation prescribe. Each employer shall supply to such individuals copies of such printed statements or other materials relating to claims for benefits when and as the Board may by regulation prescribe. Such printed statements and other materials shall be supplied by the Board to each employer without cost to the employer.

(b) Filing of Claims. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe.

(c) Initial Determination. A determination upon a claim filed pursuant to Section 6 (b) shall be made promptly by an examiner and shall include a statement as to whether and in what amount claimant is entitled to benefits for the week with respect to which the determination is made and, in the event of denial, shall state the reasons therefor. A determination with respect to the first week of a benefit year shall also include a statement as to whether the claimant has been paid the wages required under Section 4 (e) of this Act, his weekly benefit amount and the maximum total amount of benefits payable to him with respect to such benefit year.

Whenever any claim involves the application of the provisions of Section 5 (d) of this Act, the examiner handling the claim shall, if so directed by the Board, promptly transmit such claim to a special examiner designated by the Board to make a determination upon the issues involved under that sub-section or upon such claims. Such special examiner shall make a determination thereon after such investigation as he deems necessary, and after affording the parties entitled to
