

notice an opportunity for fair hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section with respect to hearings and determinations on appeal. The parties shall be promptly notified of the determination, together with the reasons therefor in the event of denial of the claim, and such determination shall be deemed to be the final decision on the claim, unless within seven days after the mailing of notice to a party's last known address, or, in the absence of such mailing, within seven days after the delivery of such notice, appeal is taken to the Board or notice of review is entered by that body.

(d) Notice of Determination. Notice of a determination upon a claim shall be promptly given to the claimant by delivery thereof or by mailing such notice to his last known address. In addition, notice of any determination which involves the application of the provisions of Section 5 or Subsection (c) of Section 4 of this Act, together with the reasons therefor, shall be promptly given in the same manner to the last employing unit by whom claimant was employed; provided that the Board may dispense with the giving of notice of any determination to any employing unit and such employing unit shall not be entitled to such notice if it has failed to indicate prior to the determination, as required by regulation of the Board, that the claimant may be ineligible or disqualified under any provision of this Act.

(e) Appeal to Referee. The claimant or any other party entitled to notice of a determination as herein provided, may file an appeal from such determination with the Board within seven days after the date of mailing of the notice to his last known address or if such notice is not mailed, within seven days after the date of delivery of such notice.

Unless the appeal is withdrawn or is removed to the Board, a referee designated by the Board, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing, shall make findings and conclusions and on the basis thereof affirm, modify, or reverse such determination; provided, however, that whenever an appeal involves a question as to whether services were performed by claimant in employment or for an employer, the referee shall give special notice of such issue and of the pendency of the appeal to the employing unit and to the Board, both of whom shall thenceforth be parties to the proceeding and be afforded a reasonable opportunity to adduce evidence bearing on such question.

The parties shall be promptly notified of the referee's decision and shall be furnished with a copy of the decision and the findings and conclusions in support thereof and such decision shall be final unless, within seven days after the date of mailing of notice thereof to the party's last known address, or in
