

ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each day such violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate offense.

(d) Any person who, by reason of the non-disclosure or misrepresentation by him or by another, of a material fact (irrespective of whether such non-disclosure or misrepresentation was known or fraudulent) has received any sum as benefits under this Act while any conditions for the receipt of benefits imposed by this Act were not fulfilled in his case, or while he was disqualified from receiving benefits, shall, in the discretion of the Board, either be liable to have such sum deducted from any future benefits payable to him under this Act or shall be liable to repay to the Board for the unemployment compensation fund, a sum equal to the amount so received by him, and such sum shall be collectible in the manner provided in Section 14 (f) of this Act for the collection of past-due contributions.

(e) Any person who the Board finds has made a false statement or representation knowing it to be false or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to obtain or increase any benefit or other payment under this Act may be required by the Board to repay to it for the fund a sum equal to the amount of all benefits received by him for the benefit year with respect to which such false statement or representation or failure to disclose a material fact occurs and may be disqualified for benefit for all or part of the remainder of such benefit year and the year next succeeding and thereafter while any sum payable to the Board for the fund under this sub-section is still due and unpaid.

RECIPROCAL ARRANGEMENTS

18. (a) The Board is hereby authorized to enter into reciprocal arrangements with appropriate and duly authorized agencies of other States or of the Federal Government, or both, whereby:

(1) Services performed by an individual for a single employing unit for which services are customarily performed in more than one State shall be deemed to be services performed entirely within any one of the States (i) in which any part of such individual's service is performed or (ii) in which such individual has his residence or (iii) in which the employing unit maintains a place of business, provided there is in effect, as to such services, an election, approved by the agency charged with the administration of such State's unemployment compensation law, pursuant to which all the services performed by such individual for such employing unit are deemed to be performed entirely within such State;
