

508. Any person found guilty of violating any provisions of Sections 498 to 507, both inclusive, of this sub-title, or any rule or regulation issued pursuant thereto shall be subject to a fine, in the discretion of the court, of not to exceed $100.00 for each and every such offense, and each and every such violation shall constitute a separate offense, and a repetition of such offense may be enjoined by appropriate proceedings in the courts of this State. It shall be the duty of the State's Attorney of each and every county of this State and the City of Baltimore, upon application by the health authority, to prosecute in the court having jurisdiction of the offense, all persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of Sections 498 to 507, both inclusive, of this sub-title, and where appropriate, to institute proceedings in court to enjoin further such violations.

509. Every person who is engaged in any business in the conduct of which such person buys or receives milk or cream from the producer thereof shall, irrespective of the method of payment or settlement therefor, be required to hold a separate permit to be issued by the University of Maryland for each place where such milk or cream is weighed, measured or tested, irrespective of whether or not such person also holds or is required to hold a permit under Section 498 of this sub-title. Each such permit shall be issued upon an application made upon a form to be prepared by said University, on which, in addition to all other information which may be required by such University, such applicant shall state under oath the daily average amount of milk or its equivalent in cream purchased and/or received by such person at each such place where the same was weighed, measured or tested for its butter fat content during the 12 months immediately preceding such application; or if such person was not so engaged for such period, then for such portion of such period during which such person was so engaged; and if such person was not so engaged during any portion of such period, then such person shall state under oath on his application the daily average amount of milk or its equivalent in cream which such person expects or believes he will purchase and/or receive during the calendar year for which such permit is applied for at each place where he expects to so weigh, measure or test for its butter fat content such milk or cream; provided, however, that any person who, on the day when this Act takes effect, holds a valid permit issued by the said University under the provisions of Section 497 of this sub-title as the same was prior to the taking effect of this Act, shall not be required to take out a permit for the same premises under the
