

provisions of this section until such other permit has expired or is revoked.

510. With every such application the applicant shall pay a fee which shall be based upon the daily average volume of milk and cream purchased or to be purchased as set forth on the applicant's application, computed as follows: (a) for purchasing and/or receiving milk and/or cream in any amount not to exceed the equivalent of five hundred (500) daily pounds of milk, such fee shall be one dollar ($1.00); (b) for purchasing and/or receiving milk and/or cream in any amount in excess of the equivalent of five hundred (500) daily pounds of milk, but not to exceed the equivalent of two thousand (2,000) daily pounds of milk, the fee shall be five dollars ($5.00); (c) for purchasing and/or receiving milk and/or cream in any amount in excess of the equivalent of two thousand (2,000) daily pounds of milk, but not to exceed the equivalent of forty thousand (40,000) daily pounds of milk, the fee shall be ten dollars ($10.00); (d) for purchasing and/or receiving milk and/or cream in any amount in excess of the equivalent of forty thousand (40,000) daily pounds of milk, the fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Upon the receipt of any such application, with the prescribed permit fee, the University of Maryland shall forthwith issue the permit so applied for, which such permit shall be valid and effective during the calendar year for which issued unless and until it is sooner revoked or suspended for cause. Each such permit shall be posted in plain view on the premises for which it was issued, and no such permit shall be assignable or transferable. All such permits shall be renewable from year to year upon the filing of an appropriate application and the payment of the prescribed permit fee to be computed as hereinabove set forth. It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase or receive milk or cream by weight, measure, or butter fat test at any place where the same is to be so weighed, measured or tested unless such person holds an appropriate valid permit for such place, or after such permit has expired, is revoked, or while it is suspended.

511. It shall be unlawful for any person who is subject to the provisions of Section 509 of this sub-title to use, in the determination of the butter fat content of the milk or cream so purchased or received, any test glassware, weights, centrifuges, or balances which do not conform to the requirements of the United States Bureau of Standards and which have not been inspected, tested and approved by the University of Maryland, and for each such inspection said University shall have the right to make a reasonable charge, not in excess of five (5¢) cents per item.
