

obtained from the records of any person required by Section 509 of this sub-title shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of said University and only such information so furnished or acquired in any proceedings brought under this sub-title shall be disclosed by them, but nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the compilation of statistical reports from the information so furnished by or acquired from a number of such persons provided such compilation does not identify the information furnished by any such person.

520. The University of Maryland shall enforce the provisions of Sections 509 to 522, both inclusive, of this sub-title, and shall have authority to make rules and regulations necessary for such enforcement.

521. All permits which may be issued under Section 510 of this sub-title, and all licenses which may be issued under Section 515 of this sub-title, shall be revocable or may be suspended by the University of Maryland for cause. Any applicant for a permit or license, or any permit-holder or license-holder who shall feel aggrieved by the action of said University in failing to issue or in revoking or suspending such permit or license, may, within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of such action or failure to act, take an appeal therefrom. All such appeals shall be taken to a court having equity jurisdiction in the county or in the City of Baltimore where the applicant, or licensee or permit-holder resides or has his principal place of business, and a copy of such appeal shall be filed with said University. Within five (5) days after the receipt of such copy, the said University shall transmit to such court all the original papers pertaining to such application, revocation or suspension, and such appeal shall thereafter be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be had upon the record so transmitted, but the court may hear such additional evidence as to it may seem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. The taking or pending of such an appeal shall not suspend the operation or effect of any order issued by said University, but the court to which such appeal is taken, upon proper cause shown, may suspend the operation of such order, and may attach to such suspension such conditions as to the court may seem proper. Either party to said proceeding may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of Appeals of Maryland, the procedure therein to be the same as in appeals from the action of equity courts in cases originating before the Public Service Commission.
