No objection to the order of the Board shall be considered unless such objection shall have been urged before the Board, or unless there were reasonable grounds for failure so to do. The finding of the Board, as to facts, if supported by evidence, shall be conclusive. If any party shall apply to the Court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court that such additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce such evidence before the Board, the Court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the Board upon such terms and conditions as to the Court may seem proper. The Board may modify its findings as to the facts by reason of the additional evidence so taken, and it shall file with the Court such modified or new findings which, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive and their recommendations, if any, for the modification or setting aside of the original order. The judgment of the Court affirming, modifying or setting aside, in whole or in part, any such order of the Board shall be final. An appeal shall not, unless specifically ordered by the Court to the contrary, operate as a stay of the order of the Board.
