

(a) It shall be unlawful on any of the rivers of this State for any person to erect, set or maintain a blind a farther distance from the shore than one-half of said river where said river is less than 600 yards in width, nor shall any person place any blind on any of the rivers across any channel where said channel runs near the center of said river.

(b) Provided, however, that in the tributaries of the Potomac River in Charles County and on the waters of Baltimore County said blinds shall not be less than 250 yards apart measured in a straight line. However, the 250 yards as provided in Paragraph A of Section 47 shall not apply to the above sections.

Whenever an owner of land bordering on any waters that are tributary to the Potomac River in Charles County shall desire to erect a booby, brush, or stake blind in front of his property or other person to whom he shall give permission he shall not place same within 125 yards of the dividing line of any property owned by him and the adjoining property bordering on said waters unless with the consent of the adjoining landowner.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts heretofore enacted inconsistent with this Act be and they are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall become effective June 1, 1941.

Approved May 26, 1941.
