

CHAPTER 466.

(House Bill 72)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 210, 211, and 212 of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Dorchester County", sub-title "Crows", the said sub-title to be changed to "Crows and Hawks", relating to bounties for the killing of crows and hawks and prescribing the condition for the payment of bounties for the killing of crows and hawks in Dorchester County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 210, 211 and 212 of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Dorchester County", sub-title "Crows", be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

CROWS AND HAWKS

210. Any person killing any crow or hawk within the limits of Dorchester County shall be entitled to receive a bounty of ten (10) cents for each and every crow so killed and ten (10) cents for each and every hawk so killed.

211. To obtain said bounty, it shall be necessary for the person killing said crow or hawk to produce the head of the same before the clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, and at the same time make oath that the said crow or hawk was killed within the limits of said county, and thereupon the said clerk shall give a certificate of the production of the said head before him and the taking of said oath; and it shall be the duty of the said clerk to destroy the said head so as to prevent a second allowance upon the same.

212. Upon the production of the said clerk's certificate before the County Commissioners, they are authorized and directed to levy upon the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient for such bounties for the use of the person producing the same, and shall pay the same accordingly.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved April 23, 1941.
