

Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Garrett County", sub-title "Friendsville", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

189. The Mayor and City Council may from time to time cause an assessment to be made of all the property liable to state and county taxes within the corporate limits and to levy a tax thereon not exceeding one dollar on the one hundred dollars in any one year, and said property shall be assessed at its actual cash value, but individual holdings of land in excess of three acres around the buildings included within the above named corporate limits, situated outside the improved area of the town which have not been laid out in town lots, and which cannot be classified as town property, shall be exempt from borough taxes, including farm crops, farm equipment and live stock over and above two cows and automobiles and trucks as well as the buildings and improvements on the aforesaid three acres which shall be subject to taxation. And the said Council may appoint an assessor and collector of taxes and fix his salary or compensation, and provide for a method of collecting the taxes by ordinances and also the method of making assessments, and any person aggrieved by any assessment made under this provision shall have the right of appeal to the said Mayor and Council of said town of Friendsville. All town taxes shall be liens on the real estate of the party indebted from the time the same are levied to the same extent as state and county taxes are liens and the said town taxes shall be collectible in the manner as state and county taxes are collectible.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved May 26, 1941.
