

ness licensed; if the license is to be issued to a corporation or association, the application must specify the name of the individual who will superintend or manage the business.

10th. Statement that the applicant, if granted a license, will not sell any of the beverages herein designated to any person under the age of twenty-one (21) years, nor permit dancing on his premises on Sunday; and that licensee will conform to all the laws and regulations relating to the business in which he proposes to engage.

11th. Statement, duly executed and acknowledged, by the owner of the premises in which the business is to be conducted, assenting to the granting of the license applied for, and also by the applicant, authorizing the Sheriff of the County, his deputies, constables of Harford County, all Town Officers of the incorporated municipalities of said County, and all officers or inspectors appointed by the said Board, as well as the State Comptroller, his authorized deputies and inspectors, to enter, inspect and search without warrant at any and all hours, the premises upon which the business is to be conducted, to discover violations of this Act or the General Liquor Laws of the State of Maryland, and of Harford County and the said owner of the premises and the licensee, by signing said statement agree that evidence discovered during such inspection shall be admissible as evidence in any prosecution for the violation of any provision of this Act or of the General Liquor Laws of Maryland, and of Harford County.

Every new application shall be supported by a certificate signed by at least five residents and owners of real estate of the incorporated municipality of the County, or the District of the County (if outside a municipality) within a mile of the premises described in said application, certifying the length of time they have known the applicant; that they have examined the application and believe that all the statements contained therein are true, and that they are of the opinion that the applicant is a suitable person to obtain such a license. Applications for renewal licenses shall be in such form as the said Board may prescribe by rules and regulations duly adopted.

This application must be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner made before a Notary Public, or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths. If any false statement is made in any part of said application, the applicant or applicants shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and, upon conviction thereof, his license shall be revoked and the applicant subjected to the penalties provided by law for that crime.
