156Q. When land or personal property is in the hands of a Fiduciary in the Orphans' Court or Equity Court, and the taxes thereon are in arrears, under the provisions of this sub-title, the Treasurer of Kent County shall enforce the payment of such taxes in the same manner as if such land and personal property were not in the hands of a Fiduciary.

156R. All notices and advertisements required by this sub-title may be published in at least two newspapers published in said county.

156S. It shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to finish the collection of all State and County taxes due and payable during his term of office, and whenever the term of office of the County Treasurer shall expire before he shall have collected all said taxes, it shall be the duty of said County Treasurer, and he is hereby authorized, empowered and required to proceed at the time and in the manner hereinbefore provided by advertisement and sale, to complete the collection of all unpaid taxes due and payable during his term of office; provided, that it shall be mandatory that he conclude all such proceedings within the period of twelve months from and after the date of the expiration of his said term of office; said County Treasurer, however, shall receive no compensation for the services required of him under the provisions of this Section rendered after the expiration of his term of office.

156T. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation, refusal to serve or failure to qualify, or give bond, or by disqualification, or removal from the County of any treasurer appointed or elected under this sub-title, the County Commissioners shall appoint a person to be County Treasurer for the remainder of the official term. All books, papers, documents and accounts belonging to the office of County Treasurer are the property of Kent County, and at all times subject to examination by said County Commissioners or any of them.

156U. The County Commissioners of Kent County, may for neglect of duty, misconduct in office, removal from county, or for inefficiency in the discharge of the duties of his office, remove the Treasurer of Kent County after charges, in writing, have been preferred against such official, and evidence as to the same has been heard, and the
