SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That six new sections be and the same are hereby added to Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments", sub-title "Department of Correction", the said new sections to be placed immediately after Section 761, to be known as Sections 761A, 761B, 761C, 761D, 761E and 761F, and to read as follows:

761A. The Board of Correction is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to establish and maintain in Anne Arundel County on land belonging to the State of Maryland and constituting a portion of the farm on which the Maryland House of Correction is situated, a prison or reformatory of the State to be known as the Women's Prison of the State of Maryland. The said institution is hereby declared to be a public agency of the State of Maryland for the detention, care and reformation of such female offenders as may be committed or transferred to its care under the laws of this State.

761B. The said Board of Correction shall employ a Superintendent who shall be a woman and shall fix her salary; and in addition to such salary the said Board may allow subsistence, fuel and a dwelling, but the said Superintendent shall receive no other compensation or perquisite. The said Superintendent shall employ, with the approval of the Board who shall fix their compensations, such employees as to the said Board seem necessary for the proper management of the said Institution. The said Superintendent and all persons employed by her shall perform their employment only during the pleasure of said Board, and shall as employees have such duties and authority as may from time to time be imposed or conferred upon them, or any of them, by said Board.

761C. The provisions of this Article with reference to pensions of employees of the Maryland House of Correction and the Maryland Penitentiary shall be equally applicable to the employees of the Women's Prison.

761D. The Women's Prison of the State of Maryland shall be under the supervision, control and management of the
