

(1939 Edition), title "Elections", sub-title "Miscellaneous Provisions", authorizing the Boards of Supervisors of Elections, in their discretion, to establish additional polling places in any election precinct or district, under certain conditions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 175 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Elections", sub-title "Miscellaneous Provisions", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

175. The Board of Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City and the Board of Supervisors of Elections of the several counties shall have power to, and may in their discretion, whenever more than 600 persons are registered in any one election precinct or in any election district which may not be divided into election precincts, provide one additional polling place in each such election precinct or district; and whenever the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections shall designate an additional polling place in any election precinct or in any election district not divided into precincts they shall appoint judges and clerks of election therefor, as in this Article provided, who shall have all the powers, perform all the duties, be subject to all the responsibilities, and be liable to all the penalties prescribed in this Article for judges and clerks of election. Whenever an additional polling place is provided for any such election precinct or election district, it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Election to cause an additional set or sets of books to be prepared, containing the names of registered voters transcribed from the original books. One set of books shall contain the names of voters whose surnames begin with the letter "A" down to and including those whose surnames begin with the letter "J". The other set of books shall contain the names of registered voters whose surnames begin with the letter "K", down to and including those whose surnames begin with the letter "Z". One set of books shall be used in each of the polling places designated as provided for in this section. All the members of the Boards of Supervisors of the counties or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, shall sign their names to the books which contain the names copied from the original books for such polling places in the hands of said supervisors, and shall duly certify that such set of books so copied contain all the names of the persons entitled to vote in such election precinct or district, such said certificate shall appear on the blank line next following the
