

(1939 Edition), title "Elections", sub-title, "Registration", as said section was enacted by Chapter 128 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1939, said amendments providing that the Supervisors of Elections, when recopying the Registration Books in Harford County, shall strike off the names of persons who have moved from the precincts or have died.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 61 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Elections", sub-title "Registration", be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

61. In Harford County, when in the opinion of the Supervisors of Elections it becomes necessary to rewrite any of the registration books by virtue of the fact that said books have become so worn or the lettered sub-divisions thereof have become so filled with names that it is not practicable to further use said books, the names of all persons now registered on such registration books, except those who are known to the Supervisors of Elections to have moved out of the Precinct, those who are dead and also those who have not voted at a primary, general or special election in the six preceding calendar years, shall be transcribed on new registration books to be provided by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Harford County, with the approval and consent of the County Commissioners of Harford County, both as to the procurement of the new books and the manner in which the names are to be transcribed, subject to the provisions of this Act.

The work of transcribing the names of said persons to the new books shall be done under the supervision and direction of the calendar years, shall be transcribed on new registration books to be provided by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Harford County, with the approval and consent of the County Commissioners of Harford County, both as to the procurement of the new books and the manner in which the names are to be transcribed, subject to the provisions of this Act.

The work of transcribing the names of said persons to the new books shall be done under the supervision and direction of the said Supervisors of Elections by persons of intelligence who write a clear legible hand, easy to read, or in the event that said books are rewritten on a typewriter, indelible ribbon must be used, and the machines must be operated by persons who are skilled in the operation thereof, one-half of whom shall be selected from each of the two leading political parties of the County. The