

- (8) Health, hospitals, and sanitation facilities.
  - (9) Welfare.
  - (10) Educational facilities.
  - (11) Recreational areas and facilities.
  - (12) Finance.
  - (13) Civil liberties, including but without limitation, the protection thereof, maintenance of law and order, and measures to guard against sabotage and subversive activities.
  - (14) Civil defense, including police mobilization, coordination for fire protection, and disaster relief.
  - (15) Any other type of activity directly or indirectly related to defense.
- (f) To create committees, either within or without its membership, to aid it in the discharge of its powers and duties.
- (g) To require and direct the cooperation and assistance of State and local governmental agencies and officials.
- (h) To make full investigation as to all questions directly or indirectly relating to the powers or duties vested in it by this Act, or by any other law.
- (i) To do all acts and things, not inconsistent with law, for the furtherance of defense activities.

130-E. In order to avoid duplication of services and facilities the Council and the district councils of defense established under the authority of this Act are

(a) directed to utilize the services and facilities of existing officers, offices, departments, commissions, boards, bureaus, institutions and other agencies of the State and of the political subdivisions thereof, and

(b) all such officers and agencies shall cooperate with and extend their services and facilities to the Council and to the district councils of defense and shall give them such information as they shall request.

130-F. In cooperation with local officials, the Council is authorized to establish district councils of defense in critical areas of the State of especial importance in defense activities. Such district councils shall act as coordinating agencies under the supervision and direction of the Council, and in cooperation with local governmental agencies.

130-G. The ordinary expenses of the Council and of any district council established by it, including the salary of the Executive Director and all other personnel, and office supplies, rent and equipment, shall be paid from such sum or sums as may be appropriated, subject to approval of the Board of Public Works.