CHAPTER 119.

(Senate Bill 203)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 292 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1939 Edition, title "Elections", sub-title "Voting Machines", sub-section "Montgomery County", providing for the elimination of clerks of election when voting machines are used, and for the use of paper ballots and employment of clerks when voting machines are unobtainable or inadequate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 292 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1939 Edition, title "Elections", sub-title "Voting Machines," sub-section "Montgomery County", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

292. In the polling places or precincts where voting machines are required to be used by the provisions of this Act, such elections in such polling places shall be conducted by the four (4) judges of election whose appointment is elsewhere provided for under the terms of this article and for such polling places in such precincts no clerks of election shall be appointed. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of paper ballots in polling places for which said Supervisors have not available or are unable to procure voting machines; and in the event that the number of names or questions submitted for vote at any election is too large for practicable use of voting machines, then the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Montgomery County may supply paper ballots in the usual form for use in all precincts and districts of said county, and in such polling places where paper ballots may be used as aforesaid, elections shall be conducted in all respects in accordance with the provisions of said Article 33 relating
