county or counties in which similar camps are now established, is increased above the greatest number therein during the year 1942, then, to the extent of such increase, the Board of Correction may, in its discretion, make available prisoners for the harvesting and gathering or the processing and canning of any agricultural crops in counties other than the counties in which the aforesaid camps are respectively located, subject to the same terms and conditions as provided above.

It is declared to be the policy of the State that, because of the enforced idleness of prisoners in the several penal institutions of the State, it is necessary and desirable that useful work on State projects may be found for said prisoners who may be safely used for this work shall be put upon maintenance and reconstruction of the State roads.

All prisoners placed at work on farms under the provisions of this section shall remain under the control and custody of the officers of the institution from which they are assigned and shall remain subject to all of the laws, including the law as to escaping from prison, rules and regulations applicable to prisoners confined in said institution.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 7, 1943.

CHAPTER 721.

(Senate Bill 334)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section
