

"knowingly", as to habitual drunkards should be construed to mean such knowledge as a reasonable man would have under ordinary circumstances, from the habits, appearances or personal reputation of such individual. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding $50.00 for the first offense and for each succeeding offense shall be fined not exceeding $100.00 or imprisoned in the County jail for not more than thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

93. Jurisdiction. The several Trial Magistrates in each county of the State shall have jurisdiction, concurrent with the Circuit Court for such county, to hear, try and determine all cases involving any offense under this Article committed within the county. Such jurisdiction shall be exercised in the same manner as the general jurisdiction of such magistrates conferred by Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland; provided, however, that every person charged with any offense under this Article shall have the right to a jury trial, if he shall so elect, and the magistrate before whom the case is brought shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to trial by jury. This section shall not in any way enlarge the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in Baltimore City.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 6, 1943.

CHAPTER 738.

(Senate Bill 88)

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 39 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Sizes of Commercial Fish," said new section to be known as Section 58A, to follow immediately after Section 58 of said Article, authorizing the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries to make rules and regulations relating to the taking of sturgeon.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 39 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title
