

full power and authority to hear, determine and pass sentence in all cases for violations of any ordinance of said town and may impose fines for such violations, and in default of the payment of such fines and the costs of prosecution, may imprison the offender in the town lockup or county jail, but not exceeding one day for every dollar of fine imposed, and not exceeding ninety days in all; and for the purpose of carrying out the police powers herein granted, the person, before whom any case for the violation of an ordinance of said town shall be tried as aforesaid, shall have the power to issue warrants commanding the chief of police of said corporation, or any other police officer, to arrest any person charged with violating any of the ordinances of said town and have the offenders brought before him for trial. In all cases where a person is convicted of violating any ordinance of said town, and fined in excess of five dollars, he shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Frederick County; provided, the person appealing shall pray the appeal forthwith, and shall give good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the Trial Magistrate. But no appeal shall stay process or execution upon the judgment, unless a bond be given as above provided.

(2) If any offender shall be in default for the non-payment of any fine and costs imposed, he may be proceeded against in a civil action in the name of the Mayor and Council of Brunswick in the same manner as suits are brought in this State to recover small debts.

(3) The Trial Magistrate shall be furnished with copies of the ordinances of the town, and shall keep a separate docket for corporation cases and therein shall record and make regular entries of his proceedings in all such cases, setting forth the fine or imprisonment imposed and the amount of costs, and he shall submit said docket to the inspection of any person who may request to see the same; and upon demand of any person interested he shall deliver a copy of any judgment rendered by him. It shall be the duty of said justice to make out a summarized report of all corporation cases and all cases for the violation of any ordinances of the town of Brunswick heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which said report shall state in each and every case the name of the defendant, the offense charged, the name of the persons upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name and official capacity of the officer serving the warrant, and summons, the judgment rendered, the amount of fine or penalty imposed, the amount of costs taxes, and the amount of fines and costs collected by him,
