

which said report shall be submitted monthly to the Mayor and Council. Upon the request of the Council the said justice shall produce his docket and may be placed under oath and interrogated as to the entries therein. He shall pay over to the clerk and treasurer of the Mayor and Council, promptly, all fines and costs imposed and collected by him, and shall issue written orders to the clerk and treasurer for the payment of all fees and costs in all corporation cases tried by him, and said fines shall be a part of the revenue of the town.

(4) If the Trial Magistrate neglects to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by this charter or refuses to pay over the fines and costs collected by him, as herein directed, he shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, and upon conviction he shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding three months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

CHIEF OF POLICE

41. The chief of police shall be vested and clothed with all the power and authority of a sheriff and any one resisting him or interfering with him in the discharge of his duties shall be liable, upon conviction in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, or before the Trial Magistrate of the town of Brunswick, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had resisted a sheriff; he shall assist the Mayor in the enforcement of the ordinances, and to that end it shall be his duty to make complaint to the Trial Magistrate against any and every person violating any ordinance of the town; he shall be executive officer of the Mayor and Council, and shall serve, deliver or post any order or notice that under any law or ordinance of the town or under this Charter is to be served, delivered or posted, and all returns made by the chief of police to the Mayor, the Council or the Mayor and Council shall have the same force and effect, and be entitled to and receive the same credence as a return of a sheriff to any process in the circuit courts of this State; it shall be his duty, as a peace officer to maintain and preserve peace, good order and good conduct within the limits of said town and among all persons found therein; he shall repress, prevent and put down disorderly conduct and all disturbances of the public peace, breaches of the peace, gambling of all kinds; the unlawful sale of intoxicating drinks and any and all other unlawful and criminal acts and conduct whatsoever within the corporate limits of said town. Upon the application of the chief of police and upon information and oath of
