

zoning ordinances for the protection of the public health, welfare, safety and morals; may regulate and provide the conditions under which live animals may be kept within the limits of said town, and may prohibit the running at large of the same during the entire year, or during such periods as may to them seem advisable, and may make such regulations for impounding such animals and for disposing thereof as may seem to them necessary and proper. It may regulate the sale and use of fireworks in said town and may provide reasonable license fees to be paid for any place of business, public amusement or recreation, pleasure park, picnic ground, club house, billiard or pool room, theatrical exhibition, circus, baseball ground, bowling alley, motion picture parlor, roadside stand, and signs or signboards. It may impose such fines, penalties, forfeitures and punishment for a breach of their ordinances, resolutions or regulations as they may think proper, and for the non-payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures may provide for the commitment of the offender to the County jail, or to such place of confinement in said town as it may provide, for a period not exceeding thirty days, in the same manner as commitments are made for fines and penalties imposed by the Circuit Court on conviction for misdemeanor; may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person found violating any town ordinance, resolution or regulation, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, may confine said offender in some secure place until he shall be sober, and may provide further for the confinement of any person arrested, if the time be unreasonable, as in the night, whereby he cannot attend the Justice of the Peace until a reasonable hour the succeeding morning, when he shall be taken before a Justice of the Peace and dealt with according to the nature of the offense; provided that such a person so arrested may be released if he deposit with the Bailiff a sum of money or give security before a Justice of the Peace to cover any fine that may be assessed against him for the violation of the ordinance, resolution or regulation with which he is charged. It shall have the power to acquire by purchase or by condemnation under the provisions of Article 33A of the Code of Public General Laws of the State, any private property that in their judgment may be needed for municipal purposes, whether the same lies within the limits of said town or outside thereof, and it shall have full power to authorize the sale or disposition of any property owned or acquired by the town whenever in its judgment it is advisable and for the best interest of the town that the same shall be disposed of. And the said