

of voters as provided for in Sections 168 and 169 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code, Chapter 2, Acts of 1901, and Chapter 614, Acts of 1908, respectively. In all other respects said Sections 168 and 169 are to remain in full force and operation.

(h) Primary elections for Federal, State, Judicial and County offices shall be held on the first Tuesday of September in each year in which such Primary elections are ordinarily held, except in those years in which there shall be an election of a President and Vice-President of the United States, in which case the provisions of Section 230 of this Article are to remain in full force and operation.

(i) Certificates required of candidates for party nominations for the office of President of the United States shall be filed within 40 days before the date of the primary election for delegates to the State Convention provided for by Section 229 of the Annotated Code, Chapters 163 and 475, Acts of 1914, and in all other respects said Section 229 is to remain in full force and operation.

(j) Certificates required as provided for in Section 235 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code, Chapter 160, Acts of 1916, shall be filed not less than 45 days before the day of the primary election. This is to apply to all such candidates, whether the nomination is to be made by voters of the State or by voters of a political division thereof. In all other respects said section is to remain in full force and operation.

(k) State Conventions of political parties shall be called not later than 40 days prior to the election following primary elections as provided for in Section 241 of the Annotated Code, Chapter 2, Acts of 1912. In all other respects said Section 241 is to remain in full force and operation.

(l) All provisions of law so far as they are not inconsistent with this sub-title shall remain in full force and operation.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 30, 1943.
