

90S. PARTIES DEFENDANT. The defendant in any such action shall be the person whose name last appears on the Collector's tax roll as owner of the property. Such person shall be considered and treated as the owner of the property for the purposes of Sections 90Q to 90U, inclusive. If, upon the Collector's tax roll it appears that the owner is unknown, then the property shall be proceeded against as belonging to an unknown owner as hereinbefore provided. All other persons having or claiming to have an interest in the property, shall be included as parties defendant by the designation "all persons having or claiming to have an interest in property, (giving a description of the property in substantially the same form as the description which appears on the Collector's tax roll)". Any or all such persons shall be so designated throughout the proceedings by the above classification and all such persons shall be deemed to be parties defendant in the proceeding as if all the said persons were personally named in the Bill of Complaint.

90T. NOTICE. Notice and summons may be served or notice given exclusively by publication. The order of publication shall be in substantially the same form as heretofore provided and as many properties as is deemed practicable by the City may be included in the same order of publication. Publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons having or claiming to have an interest in the property and shall be of same force and effect as if all such persons were personally served, and all of said persons are hereby required to take notice of such proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder.

90U. FINAL DECREE. When, in any action to foreclose the right of redemption brought by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, under Sections 90Q to 90U, inclusive, the court shall make a final decree foreclosing all rights of redemption in the property, the court, in its decree, shall direct the Collector to prepare and execute a deed conveying title to the property to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore. Upon the execution of such a deed the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall be vested with an absolute estate in fee simple or a leasehold estate as the case may be, in such property, and all persons, including the State of Maryland, infants, incompetents, absentees, and non-residents, who have or may have had any right, title, interest, claim, lien or equity of redemption in or upon such property shall be barred and forever foreclosed of all such right, title, interest, claim, lien or equity of redemption.

90V. WRIT OF HABERE FACIAS POSSESSIONEM. Any person acquiring title to property under and pursuant to the terms
