

the supervision of the State Department of Public Welfare, to take the place of Cheltenham School for Boys, which institution shall then be converted into an institution exclusively for defective colored juvenile delinquents, under the supervision, direction and control of the Board of Mental Hygiene; (b) a separate institution or a division of an existing institution, for defective white adults, under the supervision, direction and control of the Board of Mental Hygiene; (c) a separate institution, or a division of an existing institution, midway between a training school and an adult prison, for incorrigible offenders, both white and colored, between the ages of 16 and 20, under the direct supervision and control of the State Department of Correction.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1, 1943.

Approved May 6, 1943.

---

CHAPTER 798.

(Senate Bill 370)

AN ACT to repeal and reenact with amendments Section 37 of Article 1-A of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title, "Cumberland", sub-title, "Police and Fire", providing for the retirement on pension of members of the Police Department under certain conditions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 37 of Article 1-A of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Cumberland", sub-title, "Police and Fire", be and it is hereby repealed and reenacted with amendments to read as follows:

Section 37. The members of the Police Department shall be eligible for retirement on pension on arriving at the age of sixty, but may on application each year be continued from year to year as members of the department on approval of the Mayor and City Council until they reach the age of sixty-five, at which age retirement becomes mandatory. Provided, however, that the Chief of Police, the