

officers provided for by Section 1169 and designated by said Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, shall make such investigation and return thereto as may be required by said Judge and shall execute such further orders and directions as said Judge may from time to time require; and in any cause concerning a child under sixteen years of age where said Judge assigned to exercise jurisdiction in juvenile causes shall have waived jurisdiction in such cause and shall have ordered such child to be held for action under the regular procedure that would follow if the act or acts committed by such child had been committed by an adult, the court having jurisdiction of such cause upon such waiver may suspend final sentence or final judgment for such period of time, or for an indefinite period of time, as such court may deem necessary, and may place such child on probation, under the care, supervision and direction of one or more of the probation officers herein provided for, and may impose such terms and conditions with respect to such probation as such court may deem proper and necessary.

1171. The courts aforesaid are hereby authorized and empowered to place any minor sixteen years of age or older, who may be on probation as herein provided for in the custody of such person or persons for such period of time as may be deemed for the best interest and welfare of said minor if it shall appear that the present custodian or parent is not a fit person to have the custody of such minor, or that it would be conducive to the best interests of such minor to have a change of custodian. Any person or persons who may in any manner whatsoever interfere with any probation officer for delinquent and dependent children in the proper discharge of his or her duties, or who may interfere with any person or persons in whose custody any such minor may be placed as aforesaid or who may interfere with or attempt in any manner to entice any such minor from such custody, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

1172. The probation officers herein provided for shall have the power to bring any minor or minors who may be on probation as aforesaid before the Court ordering such probation by a process of warrant duly sworn to charging him or them with violation of the terms or conditions of their probation, or by subpoena directed to them, for further proceedings and when such action is taken the Court may reopen or continue proceedings and finally dispose of the same as fully as could have been done had there
