

ers of Cambridge, in making the annual levies herein provided for, shall do so item by item, specifying the departments of the city for which the levy is made, and the amount to be expended therein. They shall in the month of March in each and every year by order noted in the minute book, and a copy thereof served upon the town clerk, treasurer and collector or any other official receiving and collecting revenue for said city, require the said official to make a final settlement with the town clerk, treasurer and collector, on or before the 30th day of June following. And the said Commissioners shall not expend any more money in any fiscal year than is received by them from all sources of revenue, due and owing to the said city. And any Commissioner or Commissioners voting to authorize such expenditure in excess of the amount levied and received as aforesaid shall be personally responsible for the payment of any sum or sums of money paid in excess of the amount so levied and received.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 30, 1943.

CHAPTER 833.

(Senate Bill 439)

AN ACT to repeal Sections 33 and 34 of Article 18 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Queen Anne's County", sub-title "Bridges", said sections relating to the bridge over the Chester River at Crumpton.

WHEREAS, the State Roads Commission has now been directed to maintain this bridge as a State bridge, so that the provisions of these sections are no longer necessary; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 33 and 34 of Article 18 of the
