

privilege altogether, either at the time of the issuance of the permit or at any time thereafter.

Seasonal permits may be granted for a portion of the year, if, in the judgment of the Public Service Commission, the granting thereof is deemed essential to the public welfare and convenience, and routes may be changed or abandoned, whenever, in the opinion of the Public Service Commission, the welfare and convenience of the public will not be prejudiced thereby.

In the event any such motor vehicle owner shall fail to report any information, as above provided, or shall change or abandon a route or reduce a schedule, without first obtaining the permission of the Public Service Commission, or shall operate with greater frequency than prescribed by his approved schedule, where the privilege so to do has been denied or limited, the Public Service Commission may, after due hearing, upon not less than three days' notice in writing, to be sent by registered letter to the address given by the motor vehicle owner when applying for his permit, revoke or suspend all permits issued to such motor vehicle owner under the provisions of this sub-title, and refuse thereafter to issue such permits to said motor vehicle owner.

Upon the suspension or revocation of a permit by the Public Service Commission, all certificates of registration issued to such motor vehicle owner by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall thereupon be likewise suspended or revoked.

The license, or registration fees, charged under this sub-title, as above provided, shall be on the basis of the entire year, but may be issued on or after the first day of July, October, and January, in any year for the remainder of the year expiring on the 31st day of March, in which event, three-quarters of the yearly fee, or one-half of the yearly fee, or one-quarter of the yearly fee, shall be paid.

No portion of the license or registration fee paid as aforesaid will be refunded for any part of the year during which said license is not used except that in the case of seasonal permits, or in the case of abandoned routes, a refund shall be allowed for any quarter, but no part of any quarter, for which a seasonal permit has not been used, or a license has been abandoned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That a new section be, and the same is hereby, added to Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Revenue and Taxes", sub-title "Mileage Tax for Use and Maintenance of Roads", to follow immediately after Section 218 of said Article, to be known as Section 218A, and to read as follows:
