

alleys, water and sewerage system and the sewerage disposal plant, buildings, offices, machinery, tools, motor equipment, etc., and shall be responsible for its care, use and upkeep; he shall have charge and direction of the working forces of the town and shall oversee any work performed under contract; he shall attend the meetings of the Commissioners when directed and shall advise them as to the condition of the public works as above defined; he shall incur no expenditure of public funds except as authorized by the Commissioners.

9. All police officers including the Chief of Police shall act under the immediate direction of the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners or the Commissioner appointed by the Board to supervise this work, and shall perform such duties as they may direct; he shall preserve the peace; prevent disorderly or irregular meetings and shall enforce all ordinances of the town; he shall serve such notices and process required by this Charter or by any ordinance passed by virtue thereof, as directed.

10. The Commissioners shall allow the officers of the Town such compensation for their services as may be deemed reasonable, and may appoint the same person to perform the duties of more than one office.

11. All officers named by the Commissioners shall before entering upon their respective duties take an oath similar to the one hereinbefore prescribed for the Commissioners in such manner as to be applicable to their respective offices.

12. The Commissioners shall require the Treasurer to give a corporate bond in the penalty of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, including the collection and accounting for all sums of money due the Town of Aberdeen. The Commissioners may also require any of its other officers to give a corporate bond in the amount they may deem necessary, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties. Said bonds shall be filed with the said Commissioners and the premium thereon paid by the said Town.

13. The term of the officers appointed by the Commissioners provided for in this Charter shall begin as of the day of the respective appointment and such offices shall be held by the appointees until removal from office, resignation or death and the Commissioners may fill any vacancy so caused.