

whenever any such debt is created, provide for the payment thereof by the issuing of certificates of indebtedness at such rate of interest as the Commissioners may deem advisable, which shall be payable within twenty (20) years, in the discretion of said Commissioners; provided, however, that no such debt shall be incurred and no such certificates of indebtedness issued except as follows: The Commissioners, shall, by ordinance passed by yeas and nays, specify the particular purpose or purposes for which the indebtedness is to be created, the amount, the rate of interest and the manner of payment; they shall then provide in said ordinance for submitting the question of the the creation of such debt to the resident taxpayers of the Town at a special municipal election to be called by the Commissioners for that purpose, notice of which shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation therein once a week for two weeks next preceding such election; the notice and publication shall recite the ordinance and describe the indebtedness to be created. The ballots shall be printed "for the Debt", and "Against the Debt". If two-thirds of the resident taxpayers of the Town voting at such election, shall vote in favor of the debt, and not otherwise, the Commissioners may incur such debt and issue the amount of certificates and indebtedness so specified.

19. The Commissioners may issue certificates of indebtedness, bearing interest not to exceed in amount the annual revenue of the Town, less the amount of all sinking funds previously provided for; said certificates and interest to be paid only from such revenue and within one year from the date of their issue; and such certificates may be issued in pursuance of an ordinance duly passed without submitting the question to a vote of the taxpayers.

20. The Commissioners shall have the same powers as the State Board of Health of this State, restricted, however, to the limits of the Town.

21. The Commissioners shall keep and annually publish a tabular statement of the receipts and expenditures of the funds of the corporation, and such other matters connected with the government and regulations of the Town affairs as they may deem necessary and proper.

22. All ordinances heretofore passed by the Commissioners of Aberdeen under the provisions of the Charter existing before the passage of this Act shall remain in
