

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sub-section (d) of Section 3 of Article 95A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Unemployment Compensation", sub-title "Benefits", as said Section was amended by Chapter 385 of the Acts of 1941, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows: (d) Benefits After Termination of Military Service.

(1) The term "military service" as used in this sub-section means active service in the land or naval forces of the United States, but the service of an individual in any reserve component of the land or naval forces of the United States who is ordered to active duty in any such force for a period of thirty days or less shall not be deemed to be active service in such force during such period.

(2) The term "trainee" as used in this sub-section means an individual who entered military service after April 1, 1940, who continued such service for not less than ninety consecutive days and whose military service was terminated on or before March 31, 1945.

(3) The term "first benefit year" as used in this section means the benefit year within which the trainee terminates his period of military service and the term "second benefit year" means the benefit year next succeeding such first benefit year.

(4) For the purposes Sections 3 (b) 1, 3 (c) and 4 (e) of this Act, the base period of a trainee for his first benefit year shall, Section 19 (r) of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, extend from the first day of the base period for the benefit year in which he was inducted into military service through the last day of the base period fixed under the other provisions of this Act for such benefit year and for the second benefit year shall extend through the last day of the base period fixed under the other provisions of this Act for such second benefit year; provided, however, that the aggregate total amount of benefits paid to a trainee with respect to weeks of unemployment occurring within his first and second benefit year shall not exceed one-fourth of his wages for insured work during the base period fixed under this sub-section for such second benefit year.

(5) Notwithstanding, if under an Act of Congress, payments with respect to the unemployment of individuals who have completed a period of military service are payable by the United States, any such individual shall be dis-
